Hieratic Studies Online (HSO)

The Hieratic Studies Online (HSO) is a peer-reviewed, academic journal dedicated to presenting research on all aspects of hieratic and cursive hieroglyphs, for example:

- writing materials and techniques
- the system of the Ancient Egyptian cursive scripts
- development and interconnections between cursive and monumental scripts
- palaeography of signs from single scribes, texts, periods, or regions
- any sources of handwritings and hieratic inscriptions
- text editions
- new readings
- manufacturing of and copying features
- layout, extratextual notes, corrections, additions, marginalia

HSO is open-access: All articles in this journal can be viewed and downloaded free-of-charge.

HSO has an open format: Accepted papers will be published as soon as possible. There is no defined publication schedule or deadlines. With support of the authors or editors, also substantial monographs or proceedings may also be integrated in the publication process.

HSO offers scholars the opportunity to include a large number of colour images where appropriate to the article.

HSO is edited by the team of the project „Altägyptische Kursivschriften" at the Mainz academy of Sciences and Literature.

The ISSN will be announced with the release of the first issue.

How to submit

Languages: Submissions should be written in English, German, or French. Please let your manuscript be checked by a native-speaker if the chosen language is not your mother-tongue.

Summary, keywords, email-address: Please add an English abstract at the beginning (maximum 10 lines resp. up to 150 words), and choose up to ten keywords which can also be found in the keyword index of OEB. We may modify abstracts and keywords if necessary. Please also supply an email address which will be published with the article, so that readers can contact the author(s).

Contact details: Send your submissions or any queries to aku@uni-mainz.de and include full contact details (postal, telephone, mobile) so that we can contact you with queries about your article. Of course contact details are treated with respect and will not be published nor made accessible online.

Format: Please send your submission to us by email as a Word (*.docx) document (other formats may be possible after approval), with images and artwork supplied via a web-hosted service for transferring large files. If any content needs to be arranged in a specific format, such as a complex table or chart, please send a pdf of how the chart should look, so that we can ensure material is not lost during migration between formats. Prints can be posted to

It is your responsibility to check whether your files are intact and not corrupted or infected with viruses.

The reviewing process: Your paper will be peer-reviewed by international colleagues who are experts in the field. If your paper is accepted with some minor changes or additions, you will have to make the changes outlined in the verdict, and we will inform you of the likely publication date.

Diacritics:
If possible please use Unicode encodings for the transliteration, otherwise use True Type Font Transliteration from the Centre For Computer-aided Egyptological Research
The codes of the common True Type Fonts (e.g. Transliteration) for transliteration can be converted in Unicode encodings by using the tool https://pnm.uni-mainz.de/tools/unicode/ (created by Alexander Ilin Tomich, https://pnm.uni-mainz.de/info/impressum).
If you need any help, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Hieroglyphs:
Please use hieroglyphs generated by JSesh (http://jsesh.qenherkhopeshef.org/) or Visual Glyph (https://aegyptologie.unibas.ch/werkzeuge/visualglyph-for-pc/). Please send us the hieroglyphs as individual files.
Please write the hieroglyphs in the original direction whenever possible. If not possible, please indicate the original direction of the hieroglyphs.

Format of main text:
Please use a Unicode compatible font (for example Gentium Plus) 12p. for the main text. If you need any help concerning the Unicode compatible font, please do not hesitate to contact us.
Put the number of footnotes behind the point or comma, if not referring to a single word or part of a sentence.
Please put citations of original text passages in quotations marks.
Please italicise Latin or other foreign language words: quasi, editio princeps, sic, recto, verso, kitāb, etc.
French É is to be written with accent, also in abbreviations: Égypte, RdÉ, CdÉ, BdÉ, ÉAO, ASAÉ
